SCHOLARSHIP CONTEST OPEN TO H. S. STUDENTS

Local Pupils Have Opportunity To Win $100 Prize From Oregon Agricultural College This Year

Here is a chance for some senior in high school to win a cash scholarship of $100 from Oregon Agricultural college this year. A new donation to the scholarship fund makes four of these $100 awards possible, and competitive contests for the scholarships will be conducted in Ontario by S. M. Boucher, principal of the high school.

Three separate contests will determine the winner. The first will feature competitive essay writing and will be judged on originality. The second contest will be in the form of efficiency tests, and the third will be to determine the student's ability in extemporaneous writing.

The principal of the school will determine the students rating highest in the contest, and will forward their papers to the college. The committee on awards will announce the winners soon after the close of the contest.

The first contest will be conducted in the various high schools of Oregon in the next two weeks. Any high school student who has been graduated within the last year may also enter the contest, provided he or she has never attended college.

SUNDAY MORNING BATTLE WINDS UP BEFORE JUDGE

Attempt To Settle Difference In Primitive Fashion Result In P. R. Shriver Paying $30 Fine in Police Court.

P. R. Shriver, an auto mechanic had a difficulty with J. A. Phillabaum a local undertaker, and Shriver undertook to settle the difficulty by resorting to primitive methods, last Sunday morning on Nevada streets near the Globe Service station. Beside attracting considerable attention, and the final intervention of passersby, Shriver secured a fine of $30 when he was brought before Police Judge C. M. Stearns Monday morning.

Mr. Phillabaum who was not the aggressor in the fight collected a miscellaneous assortment of bruises about the head and face, including a black eye and other adornments, which required the attention of physicians. Both men were charged with disorderly conduct but after hearing the evidence of the battle the judge let Mr. Phillabaum depart.

HARD CIDER HEADACHES GET COOLED OFF IN CITY LOCK-UP

Group of Young Fellows Find Trip To Fruitland Unprofitable—Judge Gives Lecture and Small Fine As Object Lesson

After a trip to a Fruitland apple ware house where they secured a quantity of cider a group of Ontario High School boys spent early Tuesday morning in Judge Stearns rooming house behind the city hall and Tuesday morning made their explanations to the Judge.

According to the story told by the boys: George Smith, Billie Lees, Lou Weaver, Mitch Moore, Leland Hess and John Sullivan, they had visited the Sargeant apple warehouse Monday evening and on their return to Ontario found the going rough. In this condition Marshal Jack Gordon found them on the streets about midnight and decided to make the night as comfortable as possible for them in the little tight building back of the city hall. They did.

In the morning they were late to classes because they had explanations to make to the Judge, who after giving them a lecture fined them $5 a piece and remitted $4 each with the added injunction that a second appearance before him would be met with a stiffer sentence and a demand for the payment of the portion of the fine remitted. The boys promised to mend their ways. The officials are endeavoring to locate just where the boys got the cider, or rather who gave it to them for they said that it was not sold to them.

It is said that the stunt at which the group was caught is but one of a series of parties held by different groups of Ontario High School boys, the others just being lucky not to have been apprehended. The officials are determined to break up the practice.

W. W. Scott of Beulah was visiting friends in Ontario the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Larue Blackaby attended a card party at the home of Fred Moss in Payette Wednesday evening. The party was in the nature of a housewarming, as they recently moved into their new home.

Walter S. Martin of San Francisco, president of Eastern Oregon Land Co. is in Ontario this week.
